- What play do you want to direct? Why?
- Please describe briefly your vision of the play and how you would achieve that vision?
- If not addressed above...
 - Do you see the play as a Comedy, Drama, or some other description?
 - Would you set the play in a particular period or era? Modern day? Other? (please describe)
 - Do you see this as a full production (with a 2-3 week run) or as a reader's theater production (no set, props, costume, or blocking & 1 week run)?
- Are there any particular technical things, set, props, lighting or sound equipment, etc, you would need to do the play (e.g. a trapdoor? Live music? Flock of chickens?)
- Similarly, any particular special costume or props needed? (e.g. period costumes? piano? fireplace? helicopters?)
- Our patrons tend to prefer plays on "the lighter side of life"...
 - Are there any aspects of the play that might be controversial to our audience (e.g. language, nudity, sexual content, stereotypes)? How would you handle these issues?

- Please describe in a sentence or two how you would advertise the play to potential ticket buyers. What would you tell people to make them want to pay to see this play?
- Have you ever created a budget for a play?
 - We generally allocate between $500-1000 per play for production expenses (does not include rights advertising, etc.) unless we have a specific budget proposal with other needs. Does this seem realistic for the play you want to direct?
- Please tell us little bit about your experience:
 - List any production(s) you have directed at OLT (title, date)
 - Any other experience you have had working on OLT productions (role, title of play, production date, director of the play)
 - Describe any other theatrical experience and training (role, title of play, date, venue)
- If this is your first time directing, please tell us how you plan to be successful and what type of support you'd expect from OLT in directing here:
- Please list at least three references:
- Is there anything else you would like us to know?

THANK YOU!
